

NSS CAMP INAUGURAL FUNCTION

The first day of the NSS camp (01.08.2026) began with the Tamil Thai Vazhthu with the presence of NSS volunteers and the village people. The NSS Programme Coordinator, Mrs.G.Dhivya, delivered the Welcome Address and warmly welcomed all the dignitaries, NSS volunteers and village people. Following this, Dr. P. Irene Vethamoni, Principal of Dhanalakshmi Srinivasan Agriculture College, Perambalur inaugurated the first day programme of HIV/AIDS awareness programme. She emphasized that creating knowledge and awareness about HIV are essential for preventing the spread of HIV and also highlighted the importance of NSS volunteers responsibility.

The village president, Mr. P. Srinivasan, also addressed the gathering and shared his valuable thoughts and support regarding the NSS camp and the various social activities to be carried out in the village.

Special address was given by the chief guest, Dr. Udhaya Aruna, Medical superintendent, Dhanalakshmi Srinivasan Institute of Medical Sciences and Hospital, addressed gathering and gave a detailed awareness session on HIV/AIDS. She explained the causes, modes of transmission and preventive measures of HIV/AIDS. She also emphasized the importance of creating awareness, avoiding misconceptions and the stigma, and encouraging people to seek proper gain a better understanding of HIV/AIDS prevention and awareness.

The programme concluded with the vote of thanks by Dr. T. Marimuthu, Assistant Professor, who expressed gratitude to all the dignitaries, organizers, volunteers and village people for their valuable presence and support. As a part of the programme, saplings were distributed to the village people, who attended the session. Finally, the programme came to an end with the National Anthem.

TRAINING ON NUTRITION GARDEN

The NSS Special Camp was organized on the topic of Nutrition Garden on 02.08.2026. The programme commenced with the Tamil Thai Vazhthu, followed by the Welcome Address delivered by Ms. D. Jayasree, an NSS student volunteer.

The Principal, Dr. P. Irene Vethamoni, delivered the special address and explained the importance of establishing and maintaining a Nutrition Garden. She highlighted how growing vegetables, fruits and other nutritious crops in a home or community garden can provide fresh and healthy food and improve nutritional security. She encouraged women to uptake greens daily for the betterment of their health. She also explained the benefits of consuming locally grown vegetables and encouraged both the village people and students to develop and maintain Nutrition Gardens.

Grow bags and vegetable seeds packet were given to the participants to encourage them to start their own kitchen garden. The programme concluded with the vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Marlee Infanta, followed by the National Anthem.

RALLY- ANTIDRUG AWARENESS

An Antidrug Awareness Rally was organized during the forenoon session on 03.08.2026. Principal, Dr. P. Irene Vethamoni, flagged off the Antidrug Awareness Rally, marking the beginning of the rally. The NSS volunteers carried placards with awareness messages highlighting the harmful effects of drug abuse. They raised slogans and interacted with the villagers to create awareness about the dangers of drug addiction and the importance of staying away from drugs.

ANTIDRUG AWARENESS PROGRAM

The NSS special camp commenced with an Anti Drug awareness programme during the afternoon session on 03.08.2026. The programme began with the Tamil Thai Vazhthu, followed by the Welcome Address delivered by Dr. T. Marimuthu. Principal, Dr. P. Irene Vethamoni, Dhanalakshmi Srinivasan Agriculture college delivered the presidential address and highlighted the importance of creating awareness among students about the harmful effects of drug abuse. The principal encouraged the NSS volunteers to promote a safe, healthy and responsible environment among students and in the community.

The chief guest, Dr. P. Angaiyarkanni, Dean, School of Law, Dhanalakshmi Srinivasan University, delivered an informative awareness session on Anti drug and explained the physical, mental and social consequences of drug addiction. She facilitated a FREE LAW AID for the local people, in which, legal advice and legal services were provided at zero cost.

Following the awareness session, the vote of thanks was delivered by NSSCo-secretary, Ms. Krishnaveni and the programme concluded with the National Anthem.

TRAINING ON MUSHROOM CULTIVATION

As part of the NSS Special Camp, a training programme on mushroom cultivation was organized for village people on 04.08.2026. The programme commenced with the Tamil Thai Vazhthu, followed by the welcome address delivered by NSS student volunteer Ms. Bhavya Dharani.

The chief guest, Mrs. R. Mohanapriya, Assistant Professor, Department of Plant Pathology, conducted an informative training session on mushroom cultivation. She explained the various aspects of mushroom production including spawn production, substrate preparation, inoculation, maintenance and harvesting. The programme concluded with the national anthem.

TRAINING ON HONEY PRODUCTION

The NSS special camp was honey Production training programme for the village people on 05.08.2026. The programme commenced with the Tamil Thai Vazhthu.

The chief guest, Ms. A. Vinithra, Assistant Professor, Department of Entomology, conducted an informative and detailed training session on honeybee rearing and honey production. The session covered various aspects of beekeeping, including honeybee colony management, hive maintenance, bee rearing and honey harvesting. The participants were also introduced to various beekeeping appliances and equipment used in honey production. The chief guest demonstrated and explained the uses of different tools and equipment, which helped the participants gain practical knowledge about scientific beekeeping practices.

VETERINARY CAMP

As the part of NSS, volunteers organized for the veterinary camp in senjeri village (06.08.2026) with the help of animal mobile medical ambulance, Dr. Jeyaprakash M.Vsc, Assistant veterinary surgeon, treated various cattle diseases like fever, stomach bloating also the cattle affected with improper foetal membrane discharge after calving and NSS volunteers assisted him. He injected the cow with “Metalaxin – To avoid fever then with Meloxicam as pain killer”. Principal Dr. P. Irene Vethamoni had thoughtful conversation with the doctor about AI to obtain high probability for female offsprings. He also educated students and local people about the Animal Mobile Medical Ambulance for door step emergency cattle service

ROAD SAFETY AWARENESS RALLY

The NSS special camp, a Road Safety Awareness Rally was organized in the village on 06.08.2026. Dr. P. Irene Vethamoni, flagged off the Road Safety Rally. The NSS volunteers carried placards with road safety messages and marched through the village streets. They raised slogans and explained the importance of following traffic rules. Awareness was created about wearing helmets, using seat belts, avoiding drunken drive and maintaining safe speed.

TRAINING ON MICROGREENS

The NSS camp was focused on microgreens cultivation training on 07.08.2026. The session began with a welcome address delivered by R. Harshitha, a student volunteers. The chief guest, Dr. Bharani Vijay, Assistant Professor, Department of Horticulture, conducted the training session.

He explained the concept of microgreens and provided detailed information on growing microgreens. He also discussed the major constraints and challenges involved in microgreens production and explained the potential income, nutritional aspects and economic benefits that can be obtained through microgreens cultivation. The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Akalya, NSS volunteer, followed by national anthem.

